

Bridge mural – Artist's notes on Design 3

I have just finalised a pavement art project around Dalry Primary school. The artwork was informed by not only the pupils' drawings but also through feedback from my meeting with the Student Council.

It has been suggested that a link between the two projects would be welcome, particularly to foster pride and ownership of the installations.

Some examples of the process below.

